SRL buys Dubai's diagnostic lab Mena Healthcare

■ NEW DELHI: Taking its first step in overseas expansion, diagnostic chain Super Religare Laboratories (SRL) has acquired Dubai-based leading diagnostic laboratory in the Gulf, Mena Healthcare. "We have just completed acquisition of Dubai-based diagnostic laboratory, Mena Healthcare for 20 million dollars," said SRL CEO Sanjeev K Chaudhary. The lab has facility to conduct around 25,000-30,000 tests per annum and is one of the leading diagnostic laboratories in the Gulf region, he said. Speaking about the acquisition, Chaudhary said: "This is SRL's first overseas acquisition and will help the company in expanding operations in Middle East, which is one of most lucrative markets." Mena Healthcare is located inside the Dubai Healthcare city, which is the biggest hub of medical facilities in the Middle East.
